

I value my time at home with my family. I have signed up for the IN do not call list. I still get call from organizations like the FOP but I do not get any solicitation calls from professional telemarketers. Please don't let this change. No matter how many times I would tell these people to not call they would keep calling. Since I have been on the list I only get a few calls a month.